My Word!

THERE IS nothing on the Albany Coordinating calendar for November at the Albany Fire station. Does this mean there are no public events scheduled for the month? Or just that people are forgetting to check whether a date is clear before setting an event. If your event should be on the calendar and you forgot, call 526-6116, extension 46 today. The service is sponsored by Albany Inter-Club Council.

CARL AND IRENE MacWilliams have a whippet, Shari O'Quinn, a rather elegant dog who is sure she's people, and they're looking for someone local who also owns a whippet. Object: joint training program. Their pooch is a year old and is run four times a week. If you qualify, call 523-7605 after five or weekends.

ALTHOUGH Albany Municipal Employees' association has had four annual dinner dances, we made it for the first time last Saturday night at the Eagles hall. The dinner was excellent, music was wonderful, but most delightful of all were the people who attended. Congratulations to the committee, Betty Rhodes, Olive Bentley and Johnnie Grisham. They planned a Polynesian theme and almost everyone wore costumes. Eighty-five attended.

JOBS DAUGHTERS fashion show Saturday afternoon at Golden Gate Fields Turf club was unusually good (that's ONE annual event we always attend). Adult and junior models were sleek and pretty. Commentator Jeanne McFadden did her usual capable job at the microphone and piano background music by Jim White-side was outstanding.

AS A PUBLIC service, here-with is printed an address to which you may send your cancelled commemorative stamps and help a U.S. Mission: St. Francis Assisi Mission, Route 1, Box 28A, Greenwood, Miss., 38930.

SPEAKING OF THAT, on the local level, Charlie Graeber is still collecting paperbacks to send to boys in Vietnam. Leave them on his doorstep at 1061 Peralta. Jim Tamura welcomes tied bundles of newspapers at Alert Cleaners, 1224 Solano, or he'll pick them up for the benefit of Girl Scouts if you call 526-6937.

MISSION PAK will be in Albany this year, opening Nov. 13 at 421-423 San Pablo Ave., next to Tamalpais Savings and Loan.

By popular demand, Cornell school PTA is planning a repeat performance of a panel discussion on the new sex education program in Albany schools at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 2, in the school auditorium.

Invitations have been sent to all the Albany school parents to help plan the new health program, ask questions and preview two movies which will be shown to children.

Panelists will include Superintendent of Schools Kenneth Forry, Director of Instruction William Woolworth, and School Nurses Freda Hanelt and Frances Tilbury.

Fathers have been particularly invited. Parents have been urged to arrive early because a large crowd is expected. Registration will begin at 7 p.m.

Broadly hinting that the program is only for adults, Cornell PTA officials have announced, "This is a great chance for Mom and Dad to get out for an evening without the kids."

Bayview Eagles 29th Birthday Dinner Nov. 4

Bayview Aerie was first organized in 1938 under the leadership of Allen H. Rhodes. The first meetings were held at the Maccabee Hall in Albany and continued there until 1956 when the present building at 3223 Carlson Blvd. was purchased. All Eagles in this area are urged to attend as this promises to become an annual affair.

Free Eye Screening Unit At Dagna's This Saturday

Free eye screening to residents of Albany will be offered Saturday, Nov. 4, when local Lions move their Mobile Eye Unit to Dagna's Market parking lot.

Staffed with well qualified personnel from the University of California, the unit is equipped with the most modern instruments for detecting all eye diseases.

The unit will open its doors at 10 a.m. and will remain in operation until 4 p.m.

The staff, which has established an outstanding record over the past several years, does not prescribe. Any defect discovered is referred to the individual's family doctor.

Locally, Dr. Arthur Longpre will be in charge of the day's activity and he encourages all from 8 to 80 to take advantage of this valuable service.

Lions District Governor Doug Kirk, in assigning the unit to Albany for this Saturday emphasized the good that can be the reward for only a few minutes of the individual's time.

"The Lions of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties are most enthusiastic about this unit," stated Governor Kirk, "because the work of this unit has discovered many diseases which by our detection has prevented permanent blindness in many, many cases." "If by our efforts," continued the Governor, "the sight of one person is saved, the Lions have contributed to the welfare of their fellowman and we are happy."

One Senator to Introduce Another at Kiwanis Club

Senator Petris

"What Kind of State Do We Want?" will be the topic of Senator Nicholas C. Petris (D-Ala. Co.) when he addresses the Albany Kiwanis club, Thursday, Nov. 2, at noon at Serb's restaurant.

He will be introduced by a fellow senator, Lewis F. Sherman, Kiwanis club program chairman for the day.

"Some of our most pressing problems have to do with the fact that nearly 600,000 persons come to California every year looking for new opportunities. Although this population influx has brought some of the most brilliant minds and best skilled labor in the world, it has also created many of our state's complex governmental problems," said Senator Petris.

Senator Petris was a member of the California State Assembly from 1953 until his election to the Senate in 1966. While in the Assembly he pioneered the long legislative battle to save San Francisco Bay from indiscriminate filling, among other significant bills including cleaning up assessment procedures.

Presently chairman of the Senate's Labor Committee, he is a member of the Committee on Natural Resources, the Committee on Revenue and Taxation and the Joint Rules Committee. During the last session, Senator Petris' bill SB124 was passed which provides property tax refunds for senior citizens whose annual income is $3,350 or less.

Al Thorogood is president of the Albany Kiwanis club.

No Fees Collected Under Cabaret Ordinance For Next 30 Days--Council

Albany City Council Monday night voted unanimously to hold off collection of any fees under the controversial Cabaret Ordinance for 30 days.

The regulatory ordinance which sets a fee of $100 per quarter for establishments with live entertainment has been vigorously opposed by local tavern owners.

Following reading of a letter from William Lancot, president of Albany Police and Fire Civil Service club, recommending revision of the City Charter to provide city employees with a right to hearing and appeal on suspensions, Council voted to meet with department heads and City Attorney Larry Saler in work session to discuss procedure.

Another letter from Anita Tronoff prompted much discussion. Mrs. Tronoff objected to forming special assessment districts for underground utilities along Masonic Avenue moving service from the eastern west side of the street. (See letters today.)

Councilman Joe Carlevaro pointed out that Mrs. Tronoff was the one who wrote editorials in favor of the school tax election last year in which she failed to mention senior citizens. He noted that her concern now seems to be for the seniors and the burden a special assessment district would place on them.

Councilman Lewis Howell said Council should not discourage people from writing their opinions and giving Council an opportunity to answer. Other councilmen said parts of the letter were confused and H. F. Call took exception to a portion which indicated businessmen in special assessment districts could increase prices and pass the cost along to their customers.

Mayor Richard O. Clark said a special assessment district is the only way to obtain this type of improvement, adding the city cannot charge the citizenry for repair or construction of one street. San Pablo Avenue lighting cost businessmen about $5 per front foot, he pointed out.

The mayor said 61 per cent of the property owners must sign petitions asking for the district, so it will be the will of the people. Costs may be reduced, he said, stating that the estimate of $12 per front foot was the high estimate.

Later in the meeting, following the suggestion of Shirley Parr, Council directed City Administrative Officer James B. Turner to answer Mrs. Tronoff's letter.

Council granted Albany Republican Assembly permission to plant a tree in the Civic Center complex in memory of the late Joseph Egenberger, Jr.

No action was taken on a request from the City of Berkeley to adopt a resolution urging the legislature to conduct an inquiry into the financial affairs of BART. Instead, Council directed Mayor Clark to listen to discussions at the Mayors Conference in Piedmont tonight and make recommendations.

Turner's recommendations for changes in the Electrical Code were referred to the City Attorney for preparation of an ordinance as was Turner's suggestion that an ordinance concerning underground districts.

Passed on first reading was an ordinance amending the plumbing code. Resolutions passed appointed Mrs. Nancy E. Ramos as temporary replacement for Joanne F. Snow, parking enforcement representative; commended several law enforcement agencies for activities during the Oakland demonstrations, commended Hazel R. Freeman for going to the aid of a girl in danger of an oncoming train, and adopted budget for expenditure of funds from the State Highway Fund.

William A. Johnson commended Council for their actions on the Tronoff letter, for the proposed charter change regarding right of appeal and for the willingness to consider the problems caused by the Cabaret Ordinance.

Final Council action referred to a work session the appointment of a committee to work toward a bill to get financial relief for the cost of educating children from University Village as well as reimbursement for police and fire services. The committee will also consider charter changes to remove the 35 cent per $100 the city collects in taxes for the schools and shift it to the school department.

Nellie E. Baum Honored on 90th Birthday

Nellie E. Baum of 1050 Ventura Ave. was guest of honor at a birthday party marking her 90th birthday Oct 15 at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin (Larry) Baum of 1049 Ordway.

About 90 guests were invited to the afternoon garden party, which included a buffet dinner and large birthday cake.

Born in Syracuse, N.Y., Oct. 15, 1877, she came to the West Coast in 1905, when her husband, Daniel C. Baum, came here to manufacture the artificial marble used in the St. Francis hotel, Palace of Fine Arts, Hotel Shattuck, Sacramento hotel and other prominent buildings. He originated the process of artificial marble coloring.

Mrs. Baum's father was a member of the 12th volunteer regiment organized in New York State in 1861 and was awarded one of 12 medals presented by President Abraham Lincoln to the 12 survivors of the regiment, who fought in the battles of the First Bull Run, Yorktown, Second Bull Run and others.

Through her father, she is related to Daniel Webster and she has in her possession the first wedding veil worn in the City of Boston, imported from France, the veil was given to her by her great aunt.

The late Mr. Baum was a cousin of S. Frank Baum, author of the Oz stories. She and her husband also were extended the honor of purchasing the first Liberty Bond sold in Berkeley during World War I.

Grams was widowed in 1925 when her husband died suddenly in New York.

She has three children, Josephine Domingos of Oakland; Larry, owner of Monarch Manufacturing company in Berkeley, and Earl, who lives with her. There are four grandchildren, Lorrene Baum of Albany, Mrs. Robert (Lelana) Crayne of San Mateo, Coral Clark of Oakland and Ronald Nagel of Livermore, and six great-grandchildren.

Box of A Christmas Checks in Mail This Month

Nearly $84 million in Bank of America Christmas Club checks—including funds for 600 Albany residents—will help bulge the Yule stockings of Californians with gifts this year.

In making the announcement, William McAuley, manager of the Solano Avenue Branch, said local savers will be presenting themselves with a $152,000 gift.

He added that the money will be distributed in November in plenty of time for the holiday shopping season.

A hilarious procession of wom-bowlers opened Albany Bowl's Halloween party Monday morning.

Bottles of champagne were awarded to the Berkeley Fire-Engine Wives team who came dressed as two spiders and two wasps. Members include Car-shuope, Sue Byers, Bev Zaher-and Billie Rolita.

Wearing a ghastly Vampira costume and winner of the scar-y costume prize (two steak din-ers at the Olde Hickory Pit) was Shirley Jensen.

The briefest costume award went to Ethel Walters, who came dressed in a mini-skirt ensemble green leaves. She won din-ers for two at the Bit of Italy.

Pat Weston won the prize for the most original costume as a man of Raid insect spray. She wore a wiglet at the Wig Styling studio. Second prize in the cate-gory went to Pat Peck, who came dressed as a chicken. She won a bowling shirt from Diablo Bowl-ing Supply.

The most unrecognizable pair was Ruth Mauck and Gene Bren-nan, who came dressed as Ike and Mike, a couple of railroad engineers with masks. They won bottles of champagne from Al-bany Square Liquors.

In the employee category, Dottie Palumbo, in a sexy pink sequin dress, won a bottle of bourbon.

Promising prizes for everyone before the day was over. Owner Bill Lacy and Manager George Schaber acknowledged donors of prizes which, in addition to those mentioned, included Hern Day Texaco, Plaza Car Wash, Albany Tire, Drozda Richfield, Super Stop Market, Corey's, Norge Vil-lage, Tom's Charcoal Boller, Davis Bynuth Winery, Pisco's, and the Red Barn, which donated 15 chicken dinners.

Other prizes were given by Al-bany Bowl. The day also featured 30-cent specials in the bar, the coffee shop, nursery and along the lanes.

Under the chairmanship of Bernice Boyd, representing the Soroptimist Club of Albany, application blanks will be made available and must be returned by Feb. 1. In order to qualify, the applicant must have taken an active part in service in the home, school and community with a high degree of cooperation, courtesy and consideration for others; he or she must have been dependable, executing responsibilities with truthfulness, loyalty and punctuality; must have demonstrated ability to lead with self-control, dignity and responsibility, and have pursued selected endeavors with sincerity and integrity.

Berkeley - Albany Municipal Court Judges Floyd C. Talbott and George Brunn have some down to earth money saving advice on traffic and parking tickets. They have set out some simple do's and don'ts:

DO pay your tickets when you first get them. Otherwise a war-rant will soon issue for your arrest and the ticket then costs much more. That's because it costs a lot of money to process each warrant.

DO arrange quickly to come to court if you feel the ticket was undeserved.

DON'T ignore the ticket just because you're short of money to pay it right then. By promptly coming to court you can —

Get extra time to pay;

Be excused from paying all or part of the fine by agreeing to attend Berkeley's excellent traf-fic school for two evenings;

In special cases, you can get permission to do work for the city instead of paying the fine.

DON'T wait for the second no-tice on parking tickets. This no-tice may not get to you in time if your present address isn't shown on the records of the De-partment of Motor Vehicles. Re-member, a two dollar parking ticket can quickly grow into a twelve dollar ticket.

To be sure of getting notice, DO let the Department of Motor Vehicles know of any change of address. You can get forms at any D.M.V. office.

You may not have to pay any fine on tickets for faulty equip-ment or registration, if you bring proof of correction to the clerk's office at 2120 Grove Street with-in 10 days. DON'T only get the ticket signed by a police officer, DO also bring it in to the clerk.

If you can't get a defect cor-rected in time, DO arrange to get more time from the court. Other-wise it may cost you a lot of money.

When you sell your car, DO make sure that the registration is changed. DON'T leave it up to the buyer; go with him to the D.M.V. Otherwise you may have a lot of trouble with tickets the new owner gets but that are charged to you.

DO especially avoid leaving your car parked more than 72 hours in one spot, because it may get towed away and get a $25 ticket in addition. Remember this if you're going on a trip or if your car breaks down. And if you have an old clunker that you don't want any more, DON'T just leave it on the street—that's very likely to cost you $25 or more because it's very expensive for the city to get rid of your clunker.

One final tip: DON'T tell the clerk your sad tale. He or she didn't give you the ticket and has no power to excuse you from it.

JUNIOR SOCCER TEAM NOTES IMPROVEMENT

Improvement in teamwork was the brightest spot of the day as the Albarito (Albany-El Cerrito) Junior Soccer team was downed 11-1 by Oakland Tech, last year's champions, last Saturday at Cer-rito-Vista Park. Albarito's lone goal by Reino Sipola was ex-pertly done and shows promise for the remaining schedule.

Reino's brother, Esko, had made the single goal in the game a week before.

Tough luck scheduling pitted newcomer Albarito against the league's best teams in their first two outings. Goalie, Guido Bar-bero, has had his work cut out for himself, and turned in a great performance, not reflected in the scoring.

Parents, friends and interest-ed boys are invited to see the team in action next Saturday, Nov. 4, when the Albaritos meet the Richmond Rebels at the Con-tra Costa J.C. field. Kickoff time is 1 p.m.

Practice and training sessions are held at the Cerrito-Vista field Mondays at 5:30 p.m., with spe-cial team practice Fridays at 4 p.m. Boys, ages 8-12, interested in learning the skills of soccer and becoming a part of the new-ly developing team to practice at the Albany Memorial field are in- vited to call James Wright, coach, at 527-0115, or Clay Ber-ling, at 524-4808.

SWEET ADELINES HAVE BUSY FALL AGENDA

Albany-Cerrito chapter Sweet Adelines, Inc., is back in the swing with many exciting plans for the coming months.

First on the agenda is the pur-chase of a chord organ to be pre-sented to Thomas Jefferson school in Kensington to assist them in their fine program for retarded children. Marian Caruso and Beth Devore, of Kensington and San Pablo respectively, were appointed by the president, Myrtle Degen of Oakland to ar-range for this purchase.

A rummage sale is planned for Saturday, Nov. 4, to be held in Richmond at Seventh and Nev-in. Proceeds will help defray the ex-penses of the group and the pur-chase of the organ. Anyone with clothing, bric-a-brac or other sale-able items is urged to call Marian Caruso at LA 5-7858 or Myrtle Degen, OL 3-5813, who will gladly arrange pick-up.

Recently the chapter received very fine publicity when the "Fortissimos," popular Bay Area quartet, were asked to appear on the Owen Spann program on KGO. The girls were interviewed individually and sang three songs. Personnel includes Lois Gross, tenor, and Mary Dewey, lead, both of Berkeley, Marian Caruso, baritone, of Kensington, and Yumi Nakazono, bass, of Richmond. This quartet as well as the chorus are available to en-tertain you at your next event and would appreciate the oppor-tunity. For club dates call the director, Marian Caruso at LA 5-7858.

Elizabeth Collins was appointed delegate to the International Sweet Adeline Convention now being held in New York and is at present in attendance accom-panied by the assistant delegate, Clara Chesnut of Kensington, after a week's visit to Expo '67.

Interested women who enjoy singing are urged to visit this evening. The chorus rehearses every Wednesday evening from 7:15-10:15 p.m. in the beautiful new choral room at Albany High school on Key Route Blvd. In-formation including arrangement for club dates is available by calling the director, Mrs. Landino D. Caruso of Kensington, LA 5-7858.

Veterans' Day Parade Importance Is Discussed

The importance of the annual Veterans' Day Parade, which will be in Berkeley this year, was stressed by various speakers at a progress dinner held recently in Berkeley.

Urging that all Berkeley homeowners and business places display their flags on Saturday, Nov. 11, Veterans Affairs Chairman Ralph Beemer (formerly of Albany) said the commission is 10 years old and includes nine members throughout Alameda County.

The commission has worked for months, he said, to be one of six locations designated by the Congressional Medal of Honor Society as Official Veterans' Day Observance areas for the Western United States. Among other locations so honored is Arlington National cemetery.

Berkeley Councilman John D. Jones expressed his pride in the annual parade, in which he is the only Councilman ever to participate from his city. "I know you're true-blue, red-blooded Americans," he told military and other leaders present. "I'm tired of hippies calling me a 'flag waver,' but I'm proud to be one."

Publisher Robert Pickering said if 11 Congressional Medal of Honor winners invited, nine may attend.

"We don't want the public to forget there are Veterans' hospitals," he said. "We must remind the government these people must be taken care of in the right manner."

Parade Chairman John Groom said the byword of the parade is enthusiasm. "It's a most stirring sight to see hundreds of Stars and Stripes going down the street, to hear the military bands which will include the Bagpipers of Sacramento, 1,500 troops and high school kids in full force."

Berkeley Police Chief William Beale said his department will try to make the parade a "howling success."

KPAT News Director John K. Chapel, parade master of ceremonies for 14 years and called the "No. 1 Man on the List," promised, "I'll always be your MC until they carry me out feet first."

Chapel said the parade should set an example in contrast to the hippie element.

"If the military showed real clamor and security, they could tell these young men on preparing for a real career in the army or navy," Chapel said.

The parade will begin at 10:30 a.m. The route of march will be from San Pablo Avenue and Channing Way to University Avenue along Grove to the reviewing stand at Berkeley City Hall.

More than 2,000 military and civilian units will participate and 35 prizes and trophies will be awarded to military and civilian parade units.

Supervisor Bort Outlines His Political Philosophy

Albany's new representative on the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, Joseph Bort, speaking at an Albany Chamber of Commerce luncheon Oct. 23, discussed his ideas and philosophy of public service and described how he became a politician.

One of the big problems facing any elected official, he said, is to keep from becoming the pawn of administrators or staff. The larger the government, the more apt a public servant is to become the pawn of administration.

It is important to "do your homework," Bort said, if officials wish to be their own persons. He said his scope is broader than that of many people because he understands engineering and most terms used in that field, has worked in life insurance, investments, law dealing with small business firms and city government.

His guideline, Bort said, is, "I do not believe in any situation that the end justifies the means. To me, means is the end. If you win a football game by cheating, it is a hollow victory."

The new supervisor said he entered politics after taking a course in "Practical Politics" through the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce.

"Before that, I was involved in PTA and Boy Scouts—just trying to be a good parent."

The political course advised businessmen that if they didn't like something, they shouldn't world, Bort said, but he can have an effect in such things as taxes, where one half are for schools, 20 per cent for county and 10 per cent for other items.

Mrs. Bain, the former Kathy Watson, attended Albany schools and was graduated from Albany High School in 1964. She met her husband while both were attending Merritt College.

Although he said he is studying the county welfare program, he has learned that 75 per cent of the total welfare budget comes from state and federal government with very tight strings attached.

"We can get tough, get rid of federal and state money and cut the program in half," he said, "but we would have to raise your taxes about $1.50 per $100 assessed valuation."

He said, "It seems best to attempt to administer welfare the best we know how. There are some abuses, but there will be a marked effort to do something about it."

He was introduced by Program Chairman Bill Rothchild. Others at the head table included C of C President William A. Johnson and Albany Mayor Richard O. Clark.

Also attending were Shirley Parr, Ralph Hill, John Pleich, Richard Dotts, Jim Woulfe, Elmer Coble, J. Neal Clarity, William Garren, James B. Turner, May Ellis Olson, Harold Olson, Yvonne Walkup, H. F. Call, Dorothy Larimer, Arthur Longpre and Al Ford of Sonoma, formerly of Albany.

RADEMACHER-ETTINGER WEDDING AT NORTHBRAE

Northbrae Community church was the setting for the marriage of Karen Cay Rademacher to David Michael Ettinger. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Joseph, Berkeley, and also of Robert Keith Rademacher of Concord. Dave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clare Ettinger of Lafayette, formerly of Albany.

The couple both graduated from the University of California at Berkeley last June. Karen was the setting for the marriage of Karen Cay Rademacher to David Michael Ettinger. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Joseph, Berkeley, and also of Robert Keith Rademacher of Concord. Dave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clare Ettinger of Lafayette, formerly of Albany. Welcome to Berkeley Committee for foreign students, and the International House Non-Resident club. She is a 1963 graduate of Oakland High school. As a UC student, Dave was a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and of the Engineers' Joint Council. A 1961 graduate of Albany High school, he was student body vice president; helped with the sports section of the school paper; and played on the football, track, and basketball teams. He is currently a lab technician for Shell Development.

Given in marriage by her father, Karen wore a floor-length gown of white satin and Shifflin embroidered net. The empire-line gown had a bateau neckline and a floor-length train falling from the squared back neckline. Her shoulder-length, bouffant veil was held in place by a bandeau of seed pearls and organza leaves. She carried a cascade of white butterfly orchids, stephanotis, and bouvardia.

Bridal attendants wore empire-line, floor-length gowns of organza and cotton faille, with train to the hemline, bateau neckline, and a row of daisies accenting the empire line. Their headpieces were circlets of fresh daisies to match their cascade of daisy bouquets. Maid of honor Patricia Miller of Berkeley, cousin of the bride, wore pale lime and carried yellow daisies. Bridesmaid Judy Katz Kornbluth wore pale lemon and carried white daisies with yellow centers. Flower Girl Kim Rademacher, sister of the bride, wore daisy-patterned eyelet over pale lemon with satin sash. A circlet of fresh yellow daisies crowned her hair, matching those she carried in her basket.

Best man was Stephen Burman of Albany. Ushers were Robert Kaer of Berkeley, George Kornbluth of Oakland, and the bride's brother, Kurt Rademacher of Berkeley. Michael Green of Berkeley was ringbearer.

The mother of the bride wore cocoa lace over beige with corsage of gold clematid orchids. The groom's mother wore turquoise lace with dusty pink clematid orchids.

A reception at Hillside Club in Berkeley followed the ceremony. Before the couple left for their wedding trip to Carmel, Dave's mother, Kathleen Ettinger, sang "Sunrise, Sunset," "The Hawaiian Wedding Song," and "Climb Every Mountain." A professional soprano, she is a member of the Etude Club, Berkeley Piano Club, and the San Francisco Music Club. Mrs. James Berry accompanied her at the piano and provided background music throughout the reception.

Ceremonies at First Congregational church chapel in Berkeley united in marriage Erlene Edice Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Andrew Miller of 654 Neilson St., and David Herbert Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Campbell of Milwaukie, Ore.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown, veil and headpiece made by her mother and carried an arrangement she had made herself. The gown was of crepe in A-line and featured an empire waist.

Gowns of bridal attendants, also made by the mother of the bride, were of lavender-pink crepe. Their floral arrangements, also made by the bride and a friend, Pat Carroll of Richmond, were of two tone lavender with pink flowers.

The bride's sister, Bernice Ann, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Sandy Miller of Milbrae, and Miss Jessica Freeman of Pinole.

Best man was Gordon Wrege of Mellen, Wis. Ushers were the bride's brother, George A. Miller, Jr., of Milbrae, and George Wagner of Pennsylvania.

About 100 friends attended the reception before the couple left on a wedding trip to Southern California.

The bride, a graduate of Berkeley High school, is past worthy advisor of Thousand Oaks assembly of Rainbow for Girls. Now in her third year at San Francisco State, where she is a special education major, she is a part-time gift wrapper at Capwell's.

Her husband, graduate of Milwaukie High school in Oregon, is serving in the Air Force at Ellerson Air Force base in Alaska.

At the reception, punch and coffee were served by Miss Carla Spindt of Berkeley and Miss Virginia Volheim of Albany, both affiliated with Thousand Oaks assembly. Miss Judy Young of Albany attended the guest book.

Welcome Wagon Hostesses Needed

Velma Royal of Concord is looking for 'Welcome Wagon' hostesses in this area.

Mrs. Royal said applicants should be mature, have a car, be able to type at least a little. In addition, they should like people and be tactful, discreet and friendly.

A five-day training course will be given to new hostesses in San Francisco before they begin their work with Welcome Wagon.

Welcome Wagon is the world's largest personal public relations service, Mrs. Royal said. The hostesses call on newcomers, the newly engaged and the new parents bringing congratulations of business sponsors and helpful information about community, civic, religious, cultural and social service programs.

Those interested may call her at 934-7792 or write 651 Brink Ct., Concord, Calif.
